How Advocates Can Help

This information is written in an easy to read way.

We use pictures to explain some ideas.

You can ask for help to read this information.

A family member, friend or support person may be able to help you.

What is an Advocate?

An advocate is someone you trust who can help you to tell us what you want or need.

An advocate can be a friend, family member, or from an advocacy service.

An advocate can help you in many ways if you have a problem.

An advocate can help you:

- make decisions;
say what you want;
understand
decisions
- help you if you have complaints, or
- are feeling unsafe.

How to find an Advocate?

You can ask any of our staff
